The Journey of Sean & John

Southern California born identical twins Sean & John Scott began their tap training at age 6 with master tapper Alfred Desio at LA's Colburn School of Performing Arts. By age 8 they were dancing together professionally.

BET EXPERIENCE

SHOWTIME AT THE APOLLO

America's got Talent

Their unique combination of traditional tap and hip-hop culture made them the must-see street dance act on the sidewalks of Southern California and a favorite on TV talent shows.

It wasn't long before the wider entertainment industry started taking notice of the young, energetic duo.

SEAN & JOHN have been privileged to work with some of the biggest names in the entertainment industry: Beyoncé, Usher, Prince, Stevie Wonder, Madonna and Christina Aguilera to name a few. They've also been honored to share the stage with tap dance legends The Nicholas Brothers, Gregory Hines & Savion Glover.

Whether alongside entertainment legends or dominating stages with their own act, the twins' performances have left audiences in awe, earning them a well-deserved spot in the limelight and in the pages of tap dance history.
